

2010 Spring Transition Conference

April 28- 30, 2010

NC Division on Career Development & Transition Council for Exceptional Children

Our 16th annual Spring Transition Conference is right around the corner and we want to make sure you are there to join in the fun, friendship, and professional development. You won't find a better, more focused conference than this one, anywhere! Help us stand out, and shine the light on the best educators of exceptional children and practices in the state!

We are excited to be holding this year's conference in the Capital of our state at the Hilton North Raleigh. The Hilton provided a wonderful venue for last year's conference and we look forward to being there again in 2010. With top-notch presenters and vendors to educate us during the day, and excellent shopping and restaurants to keep us busy at night, this year's conference will be the best yet!

Conference topics include:

OCS Curriculum Transition Assessment Transition Plan Writing
School-Based Enterprises Life Skills Classroom Expectations
College for the Exceptional Child Job Coaching Employability Seminar
Transition Services for ALL Areas

...And So Much MORE!!
